Johnson, David. Snow Sounds: an onomatopoeic story. Boston: Houghton Mifflin Company, 2006.

Flannels:

Amy Loves the Snow, Julie Hoban

Amy looks out the window. It is snowing. Let's make a snowman, Daddy. Red mittens and red scarf for Amy. Blue mittens and blue scarf for Daddy. Amy's boots squeak squeak. Look, they leave small footprints. Daddy's boots go squish squish. Look, they leave big footprints. Daddy and Amy make a big snowball. That is the bottom of the snowman. Amy makes a small snowball for the head. The snow is so cold, it goes through warm mittens. Daddy, I caught a snowflake on my tongue. It tastes cold and wet. Here is Mommy. She has a big, orange, carrot for the snowman's nose. Carrots taste better than snow. Amy gives the snowman his nose. Then we will go inside and have some nice hot chocolate.

Songs:

CD: H.U.M. – Carole Peterson

#24 "I'm a Little Snowman" (I'm a Little Teapot) actions

I'm a little snowman, short and fat

Here are my buttons, here is my hat

When the sun comes out, I melt away

But I'll come back another day

#25 "Snowflake, Snowflake" (Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star) actions, can use tissues/scarves 'snowflakes'

Snowflake, snowflake dance around

Snowflake, snowflake touch the ground

Snowflake landing on my nose

Snowflake landing on my toes

Snowflake, snowflake dance around

Snowflake, snowflake touch the ground

CD: Let's Dance and Play – Bill Hooper

#9 "Snowman" (just first time)
